

Choir opening song from Filament Theatre's Momo

by Osnat Schmool

I have a voice

(the word "SING" unites the parts as they layer on top of each other.)

Low part (Alto, Tenor or Bass an octave down)

I have a voice
Hear it mightily call
Hear me SING

Middle part (Alto or Bass an octave down)

SING
Sing
We fill this place with our song

Top part (Soprano)

Hear our voices call
Together we sing
We proudly SING

(once established, these parts continue to loop and grow in volume until signal for the coda is given low phrase sung octave up/hand signal from choir leader)

Whole Choir

SING
SING....mmmm

I have a voice

once established, these parts continue to loop and grow in volume until signal for the coda is given, visual and *octave leap of low theme.
