Cello Tutors Wanted

Starting September 2025

£34.50-£35.50 per hour, Self Employed

Our vision is a borough where music resonates along the corridors of every school and echoes throughout the community. A place of aspiration where every child can find their first notes, make progress and flourish as a young musician.

We are looking for enthusiastic and engaging practitioners to join our team of peripatetic instrumental tutors to deliver outstanding piano, violin, guitar & cello lessons at our South Wimbledon Music Centre and schools across Merton. Previous experience working in a primary or youth group context is desirable.

Once appointed to the panel, offers of work can be made in response to demand and tutor availability.

Cello Tutor Wanted – SW19

Job Description

Instrumental Tutor

Responsibilities

- Inspiring and involve young people with a love of learning and making music.
- Developing resources and adapting practice to suit the needs and interest of all learners.
- Communicating with and reporting to parents/guardians and other professionals about pupils' learning needs, to identify and remove barriers to progress and welfare.
- Following best practice in safeguarding, equality, diversity, and inclusion
- Supporting the vision and strategic aims of the music service.

Knowledge and Experience

Essential

- Experience of learning, creating, performing, or facilitating music at a high level.
- Understanding the benefits of different ways of learning music.
- Understanding what motivates young people to learn, the barriers that young people may face to making music and how it supports personal and social development.
- An interest to deliver a child-centered learning experience which values and responds to the needs and interests of individuals, within and beyond your musical specialism.

Desirable

- Experience of helping others to develop musically, personally or socially.
- Experience of teaching or facilitating learning in a range of settings (eg. school, youth or community settings)
- Knowledge of how to differentiate teaching to the learning styles of a wide range of young people.
- Awareness and appreciation of the educational value of a diverse range of musical genres and practices

Skills and Competencies

Essential

- A high level of proficiency in your area of specialism.
- Ability to plan and deliver high-quality learning experiences to engage a wide range of pupils.
- Ability to create a safe learning environment and respond to their interests and needs.

Desirable

- An ability to reflect on, refine and develop teaching practice.
- An ability to work flexibly, responsively, and calmly under pressure.
- Emotional intelligence: understanding of how music can benefit the whole child/community.
- Ability to encourage independent learning across a variety of genres.

What You Can Expect

A dynamic and forward-thinking Music Education Hub with supportive leadership, curriculum, and administrative teams.

A learning community of over 80 peripatetic instrumental tutors and around 1500 children and young people learning every week.

Discounted lesson & ensemble membership rates for MMF tutors and their children.

MMF operates as an administration and co-ordination body, buying in the services of freelance musicians. Tutors can focus on the delivery of tuition whilst all administration of invoices, registers and collection of fees is undertaken by our charity.
