Instrumental Lessons

Individual & Small Group Tuition

Musicians of Tomorrow

Parent-Funded Instrumental Lessons

Help your pupils to start their musical journey by offering one-to-one, paired and small group instrumental lessons via MMF. Lessons take place in school, during the school day delivered by specialist tutors.

MMF applies the same rigorous standards as schools in recruiting and vetting its teaching staff and provides quality assurance of teaching and learning through regular lesson observations and staff training.

Lessons are parent/guardian funded (financial assistance available) and administered by MMF; schools simply provide a teaching space.

Special Projects

Arts & Culture Opportunities

Music is for Life!

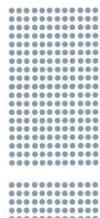

From grand-scale concerts and events, like our biennial schools' Royal Albert Hall concert, to in-school arts, media and culture projects facilitated by MMF and its network of creative delivery partners, there's something for everyone!

Our calendar of special projects and events are coordinated by MMF's Schools & Projects Leader. Information is shared with schools via the Music Coordinators' email distribution list and our website:

www.mmf.org.uk/schools

To find out more or to request to join the Music Coordinator email list, please contact: schools@mmf.org.uk

Nurture Groups

Targeted Intervention

Improving Social Outcomes for Pupils

Small group, 30-minute weekly sessions delivered by a music specialist trained by MMF in partnership with the Changing Tracks National Nurture Group programme. Music making is used as an entry point for developing pupils' emotional resilience. For school-selected targeted groups of pupils at risk of poor educational outcomes.
